METAMORFOSI MUSICALI

Constantinople and guest soprano Suzie LeBlanc reinvent the cantatas of 17th-century singer and composer Barbara Strozzi, a worthy heiress of Monteverdi, who created a secular vocal repertoire that intoxicates the senses. Metamorfoosi Musicali also features beautiful vocal pieces of Stefano Landi and instrumental works of Johannes Kapsberger, whose spontaneous phrasing and sharp contrasts provide fertile ground for Constantinople's improvisations.

ISTANBUL

Music from the Ottoman Empire in dialogue with the Armenian, Greek & Sephardic traditions

This program will feature Taksim, a style of Balkan and Middle Eastern musical improvisation, on Sephardic, Armenian, Turkish and Greek themes, featuring oud, kanun, santur and other instruments.

Known for her imaginative and wide-ranging recitals that include lieder, contemporary works and folk and popular music, Ms. Upshaw will present a program that includes songs by Charles Ives, Schubert, Bartok, Ravel and William Bolcom.

One of the great sopranos of our time, Dawn Upshaw, has a power, clarity and pure beauty of tone that transfixes the listener. A rare natural warmth and fierce commitment to the communicative power of music, she has achieved worldwide celebrity as a singer of opera and concert repertoire from Bach to the freshest sounds of today.
